

ReproCare Aluminum Block

ReproCare Aluminum Blocks are manufactured to protect the ambient temperature and maintain the temperature of the culture dish, tubes, and syringes during the operation.

ReproCare Aluminum Blocks are compatible with IVF Workstations, incubators, heating plates, and block tube heaters.

These blocks minimize the negative impact of the ambient conditions and they are manufactured to ensure required stabilization by reducing the heat loss to minimum during operation.

ReproCare Aluminum Blocks are designed to acquire maximum efficiency along with its compatibility with culture dishes, tubes, and syringes.
